ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Landon does not rank its students.
- Prior to 2022–23, all Landon students enrolled in AP courses were required to take the corresponding examinations.
- Students are not permitted to enroll in more than three Advanced and/or Honors classes per year (or three AP/Honors courses prior to 2022–23) without special permission. Twenty-two students in the class of 2024 (23% of the class) had approval to take four Honors and/or Advanced courses.
- Advanced courses (equivalent to AP level and beyond) in math, science, music, art, computer science, and history are typically senior year courses; AP equivalent courses in world languages (level 5 or Senior Honors level) are taken junior or senior year.
- To acknowledge the rigor of our Advanced and Honors level courses (and our AP courses before 2022–23), grades in these courses are weighted five points, which is included in the grade reported on a transcript and the calculations of a student’s overall GPA.
- Advanced lab sciences (formerly AP lab sciences) are double-period length classes.

SIGNATURE PROGRAMS

To ensure each boy cultivates Landon’s core values, we have three programs that drive school life: Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion; Ethics, Service, and Leadership; and Health, Wellness, and Fitness.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Landon School and our full-time Director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion cultivate a community in which voices are heard and differences are celebrated through:

- Presentations given by faculty and students sharing their cultures, heritages, and traditions
- Assemblies followed by advisory group conversations
- Extensive, schoolwide programming and resources for students, faculty, parents, and families including clubs, conferences, retreats, and professional development

Health, Wellness, and Fitness

Our initiatives in health, wellness, and fitness have tremendous positive impact on the emotional, physical, and social health of our boys, setting us apart from other schools in the D.C. area. The Landon difference includes:

- Two full-time school counselors
- Required daily athletics
- Weekly classes, monthly presentations, and regular advisory group meetings on wellness and mental health
- A Teacher-Coach-Mentor model that allows students and coaches (100% of head coaches are Landon faculty) to build supportive relationships on and off the field

Ethics, Service, and Leadership

Landon is an Honor Code school. The Honor Code was created by students in the 1960s and has been a student-run pillar of the school’s community ever since. Everything we do exemplifies our commitment to this code, including:

- A Character Pledge signed by every student; includes the Honor Code, the Character Code, and a commitment to upholding the institutional Core Values
- Regular ethics speeches on Core Values given by students (8th graders and Senior Prefects) and faculty
- Required courses in Foundations and Ethics that help instill environmental stewardship, responsible use of technology, DEI, leadership training and principles, and service
- All Landon students and faculty assigned to a “Bear Team” (our house system) and participate together in service projects, field day competitions, and discussions on respect and teamwork
- A Leadership Summit and co-curricular work with Holton-Arms School students on issues of consent, communication, healthy masculinity, and respect
